

ITS Holiday Trivia

Pub night trivia rules apply! Please refrain from Googling or asking a lifeline.

The first three players with a perfect (5/5) score win!

* Required

* This form will record your name, please fill your name.

1

University of Toronto famous Artificial Intelligence researcher, Raquel Urtasun: *
(1 Point)

- Created a self-driving Santa's sleigh to test new technologies for Arctic exploratory missions
- Trained neural networks to take a digital Christmas photos and turn them into computer-generated singalongs
- Developed encryption technology that allows sending of bitcoin by e-transfer as a holiday gift
- Took time out from her research to perform in the Faculty of Music's 2019 holiday concert featuring Handel's Messiah

2

What is the name of the fictional holiday in the TV show Seinfeld? *
(1 Point)

- Chrismukkah
- Festivus
- Life Day
- Decemberween

3

What library resource is used to create a Christmas tree in Robarts Library each year? *

(1 Point)

- Books
- Binders
- Stacked chairs
- VHS tapes

4

A week after playing a 1969 concert at U of T's Varsity Arena, which musician decided to split with his band?

*

(1 Point)

- Mick Jagger
- Robert Plant
- John Lennon
- Paul Simon

In 1947, this card would get you into a Christmas party at the University College Women's Union, formerly housed at what U of T location? *

(1 Point)

- 79 St. George Street — now known as the UC Union
 - Graduate Union Students pub at 16 Bancroft Ave.
 - Croft Chapter House at the southwest corner of University College
 - Current CIO's office: Level 1 Simcoe Hall
-